e following document is intended to serve as a orperogram of study, dates of attendance, date of birth, most page, double-sided summary of, particularly recent educational institution attended, and degrees and focused toward faculty and instructional sta. It can abreards received.

x Directory informationannoticulate: race, gender,

The Essence

- x Federal law designed to protect the privacy of educa stances, a studentnumber ( ) also cannot be tion records. It also provides guidelines for appropri considered directory information.
- Directory informationannotnclude: race, gender,
   (or part of an ), grades, , country of citi zenship, or religion. Except in very speci c-circum
  - x Every student must be given the opportunity to have directory information suppressed from public

- x Records in the "sole possession of the meagker" ( private advising notes).
- x Law enforcement records created and maintained by a law enforcement agency for a law enforcement purpose.
- x Employment records (unless the employment is based on student status). e employment records of student employeesg(work-study, wages, grad uate teaching associates) are part of their education records.
- x Medical/psychological treatment recergs from a health or counseling center).
- x Alumni records.é, those created a•er the student graduated or le• the institution).

"DIRECTORY INFORMATOSEN: data items that are gen erally not considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if publicly available. is information cannot be released if student has a "no release" on his or her Eachrichsti tution establishes what it considers to be directory infor mation. Common examples include: name, address (local, home and email), telephone (local and home), academic